- 3.8 Women have the right to nurture their personhood, collectively and individually, to secure an image of themselves as whole and valuable beings, to build relationships based on respect, trust and mutuality.

ALBERT S. GARCIA
Provincial Governor

Oftentimes, women are exploited in media, commercials, impressing upon the public that without their attractive and pleasing features, products would be less appealing. But in reality, women should not be viewed as second class to men but as partners of men in development;

In the light of these historical gender biases, inequalities and inequities, this piece of local legislation will provide the Provincial Government of Bataan a policy direction to formulate programs and strategies, among others, that will:

1. Mainstream gender concerns in sectoral development plans, policies and program;
 2. Intensify awareness campaign on gender issues and concerns;
 3. Strengthen GO-PO-NGO partnership to maximize the effectiveness of programs and services addressing Gender and Development (GAD) concerns;
 4. Encourage, support and expand the participation of grassroots women in the planning, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of development programs and projects;
 5. Recommend, appropriate curricula academic that are gender-sensitive;
 6. Provide gender-responsive relief and rehabilitation programs with special focus on women and children's needs;
 7. Involvement in family planning programs, health and child care and nutrition concerns and engage them in projects that enhance the well-being of the family;
 8. Set-up crisis intervention centers and shelters in the Province of Bataan for survivors of violence against women and children and other social conflicts;
 9. Promote gender sensitivity in local media and advertising agencies;
 10. Increase the members of women in decision and policy making posts in the locality through implementation of capability building programs.

Section 4. Definitions of Terms. The following terms or phrases used in this Code shall mean as follows:

1. Battering - a series of physical, emotional and psychological abuse. It is repeated and habitual cyclic patterns as means of intimidation and imposition of the batterer's will and control over the survivor's life. It constitutes the following kind of behavior but is not limited to:
 - a. Sexual battering - this includes physical attacks on the woman's breast, genital or forced sexual activity;

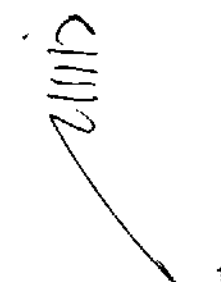

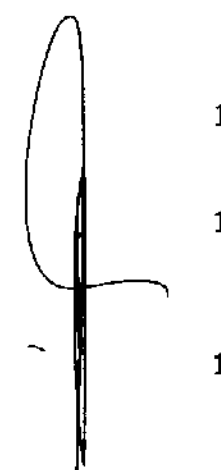

ALBERT S. GARCIA
Provincial Governor

- b. Psychological battering - this includes threats of suicide, violence against women or her family, punching holes in the walls, threatening to take the children away, threatening deportation of wives with foreign citizenship, threatening to kidnap children or take them to a country and forcing the victim to do degrading things. It may also include controlling the victim's lawful or usual activities, the use of foul words or statements and threats or abandonment and expulsion such as forcing the wife to leave the conjugal dwelling. This provision shall likewise apply to common-law relations but does not include adulterous ones as contemplated in the Revised Penal Code;
 - c. Economic battering - this includes deprivation of women of economic resources, their generation and mobilization so as to create dependency and submissiveness to men and to any established structures of domination;
 - d. Premeditated and intentional destruction of property and pets usually the victim's favorite.
 2. Benefit Dance/Disco - refers to a dance in the locality where women are commoditized for fund raising purposes;
 3. Collateral relatives - next of kin who are not in direct line or inheritance such as cousin;
 4. Commoditization of Women - is a practice which puts women in a subordinated situation, which results in the treatment of women as both consumers and objects of consumption, as consumers women are allured to buy beauty products to enhance their physical attractiveness, as objects of consumption women are reduced to a sexual commodity for manipulation and utilization for one's sexual desire or interest, usually in exchange of money or goods so that women have no power or control to reject such utilization or manipulation;
 5. Development - the improvement of the quality of life of all regardless of age, sex, gender, tribe, race, creed and religion. It is characterized by sustained and equitable growth in a balanced ecology;
 6. Differently-abled Persons - are survivors of physical impairments that have differentiated needs and potentials;
 7. Discrimination against women - any distraction, exclusion or restriction made on the basis of sex which has the effect or purpose of impairing or nullifying the recognition, enjoyment or exercise by women of their rights irrespective of their marital status;
 8. Equity - is a concept of distributive justice which is remedial and is intended to overcome bias, favoritism and inequalities;
 9. Empowerment - refers to a process by which women are mobilized to understand, identify and overcome gender discrimination;

ALBERT S. GARCIA
Provincial Governor

10. Feminization of Poverty - a condition when the gap between the rich and the poor widens and grassroots women bear the brunt as in economic instability and unequal distribution of wealth. Such gap reinforces non-response to both practical and strategic needs of grassroots women;
11. Fund Raising Initiatives - refers to any activity, whether in whole or in part integrated in any raffle draw, benefit or disclosure, premier showing of movies, or any similar fund raising undertaking where women are used as donor prize, substitute for cash prizes won, a companion package for an award prize or recognition or any manner, activity, come-on display or exhibits which depicts a woman as central, partial or special focus in order to raise funds;
12. Gender - refers to the differentiated social roles, behavior, capacities and intellectuals, emotional and social characteristic attributed by a given culture to women and men, in short all differences besides the strictly biological. There are two (2) kinds of gender: masculine ascribed to the male sex and feminine ascribed to the female;
13. Gender and Development - shall refer to a development perspective which promotes greater focus on people both as development agents and participant. It encourages the equal contributions of women and men in all aspects/sectors of development. Such a perspective involves the process of searching for new and innovative initiatives which help transform unequal gender relations into opportunities where equality in both men and women exists. It recognizes that the unequal relation between women and men is a major deterrent to social and economic progress. It acknowledges that the difficulties encountered by women have to be addressed to ensure their effective participation in development. It envisions a future society where women and men equally contribute to and benefit from development;
14. Gender Equality - is the role required by or expected of women and men as prescribed by society. As a key to development, gender equality means the equal empowerment and participation of women, men and other subgroups of society, i.e. homosexuals, in all spheres of public and private life;
15. Gender Mainstreaming - refers to the strategy of integrating gender and development concerns and issues at all levels;
16. Gender Perspective - way of viewing issues and problems that take into consideration the different realities of women's and men's lives and recognizing that there is an unequal relationship between the two;
17. Gender planning - means taking account of gender issues in planning. In development planning, it means that gender issues are recognized in the identification of problems and addressed in development objectives;
18. Gender sensitive/responsive - having an understanding of the marginalized position of women and consciously challenging the attitudes and behavior that reinforce women's subordinate status;

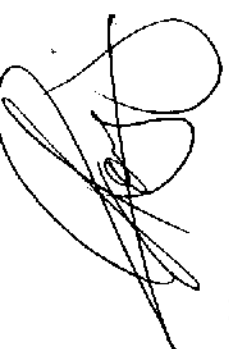

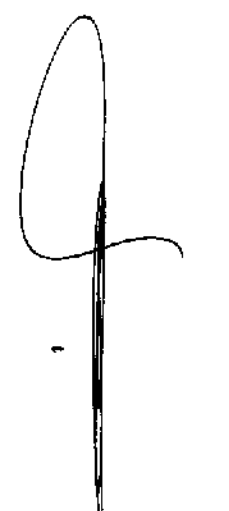

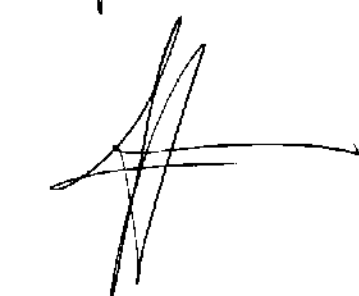

ALBERT S. GARCIA
Provincial Governor

19. Gender Sensitization - is an experimental and critical process of learning and unlearning of an individual female or male of the causes and effects of the culturally determined roles of women and men;
 20. Gender Sensitivity Training - means providing people with formal learning experience in order to increase their awareness. The overall purpose of the training is to provide the knowledge and skills necessary to recognize and address gender issues in the programming process. At the center of the learning process is the conscientization, involving the ability to recognize the underlying issues of gender inequality which form a pervasive obstacle to program progress;
 21. Indecent Shows - are shows which include nude or other provocative gestures which further project and exhibit men and women as sex-objects;
 22. Indigenous People - a group of people who have continuously lived as organized community or communally bounded and defined territory, and who have, under claims of ownership since time immemorial, occupied, possessed and utilized such territories sharing common bonds of language, customs, traditions and other distinctive cultural traits. They are regarded as indigenous on account of their decent from the populations who inhabited the country at the time of conquest or colonialization and who retain some or all of their own social, economic, cultural and political institution and have been displaced from their traditional domains or who may have remitted outside their ancestral domain;
 23. Minors - refers to persons below eighteen (18) years of age and unable to take care of themselves from abuse, neglect, cruelty, exploitation or discrimination;
